

It's time for Deacon Dan to become Father Dan!

And you're invited!

If you plan to attend, please let him know:
dgallauger@yahoo.com

Friday, June 19

6:15 p.m.

Holy Hour for Vocations

St. Matthew's Cathedral

Saturday, June 20

9:30 a.m.

Ordination Mass

First priestly blessings following

National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception

Sunday, June 21

11:30 a.m.

First Mass of Thanksgiving

Light reception with first priestly blessings following

St. Matthew's Cathedral

Location and parking for the Holy Hour and First Mass of Thanksgiving

The Cathedral of St. Matthew the Apostle is located at 1725 Rhode Island Avenue NW, near the intersection of this street with Connecticut Avenue, M Street, and 18th Street.

Driving directions can be found at www.stmatthewscathedral.org/location.html.

Parking: On Friday evenings, street parking is very limited. The parking garage attached to the Cathedral is open and costs $5.00. (Note that it closes at 10 p.m.) There are other parking garages nearby.

On Sunday mornings, some street parking can be found; but allow time to navigate stoplights and one-way streets as you hunt for it. The parking garage attached to the Cathedral is open and costs $5.00.

Metro: Take the Red Line to either the Farragut North station (north exit) or the Dupont Circle station (south exit).

Location and parking for the Ordination Mass

The Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception is located at 400 Michigan Avenue NE, on the northeast corner of the intersection of Michigan Avenue with 4th Street/ Harewood Road.

Parking: A large, free parking lot is located at the northwest corner of this intersection. Handicap and limited additional parking is available in the small upper lot alongside the Basilica.

Metro: Take the Red Line to the Brookland-CUA station. As you exit the station, turn left (west) to go to the Catholic University campus. The National Shrine is about 0.4 mi, along Michigan Avenue or through campus.

